FROM PATRICK BRENNAN

Welcome Back!

With 2012 well and truly gone and 2013 rapidly moving, I would like to thank all the dedicated students and parents who have participated in the Central Coast Conservatorium's program last year. This year promises to be full of exciting concerts, tours, workshops and prestigious visiting artists.

One exciting change for the CCC will be in the delivery of the NEW musicianship program. I personally believe that all students learning musical instruments and singing should be involved in theory lessons outside of the music studio. This comprehensive approach to musical pedagogy allows tutors to focus their attention on the technical and musical aspects of learning and performing a musical instrument/voice. Hence this maximizes the learning potential of students as well as optimising their enjoyment in music lessons.

Perhaps the biggest change in 2013 will be the introduction of new ensembles including the Central Coast Children's Choir. In 2013 I will be working closely with tutors and directors to ensure ensembles achieve excellence at all levels, that students feel committed to their team, and that opportunities for performance to our local and wider community are paramount. I believe the best way to promote music and music education to our community is through performance.

Music creates emotion and evokes feelings better than any other art form. It is my hope that our community involvement may inspire our local and wider community to realise the importance and relevance of music in all our lives.

YOUTH ORCHESTRA @ CONCOURSE

The Central Coast Conservatorium Youth Orchestra captivated an audience of almost 600 at Sydney's newest concert hall, The Concourse at Chatswood, on the evening of Tuesday, November 27. The End of Year Concert was the highlight of a successful year of practicing and performing together for the 45 ensemble players who range in age from high school students to young adults.

Conducted by Orchestral Director, Mr John Nottle, the Youth Orchestra performed a number of challenging pieces, including a Mozart Concerto, featuring a solo violin performance by senior Central Coast Conservatorium student, Emily Chapman. Emily had the following to say about her experience - "Performing to such a large audience at Chatswood Concourse with the Central Coast Youth Orchestra was an amazing experience and one that I will never forget. It was a great opportunity to showcase the talent of all the young musicians on the Coast, and it left me beaming with happiness for days afterwards." She thanked Conductor, John Nottle for "the many long hours of preparation, dedication and support" and congratulated all Youth Orchestra performers for "their tremendous effort and fabulous performance on the night."

The Orchestra's performance of Glinka's Overture to Ruslan and Ludmilla can be viewed on YouTube by searching for Central Coast Conservatorium.

The performance was part of the Northern Sydney Symphonic Wind Ensemble's (NSSWE) 2012 Showcase Concert. NSSWE showcased four symphonic wind ensembles and four stage bands on the night.

Previously known as Civic Place, the Concourse opened in September 2011. Known today as 'the cultural home of the North Shore', the Concourse (an initiative of Willoughby City Council) continues a century old tradition of performing arts, public celebrations and civic ceremonies for the Northern Sydney community.

TRIPLE THREAT

Performers who can sing, act and dance - Triple Threats - are now in high demand. The Conservatorium has engaged industry professionals Tim Page and Allan Royal to head the new Music Theatre Course in 2013. This weekly Saturday workshop will go for two and a half hours and promises to dynamically improve your performance skills so you too can join the elite and have the confidence that comes from being a Triple Threat.

Learn techniques used by professionals to ensure you are always prepared to impress at auditions, on stage and on screen. Think of Hugh Jackman, Bette Midler, Lisa McCune and many other performers who have developed their acting, singing and dancing to such a high standard that they are rarely out of work and can cross over from screen roles to stage roles with confidence.

Our tutors have years of experience on TV, film, recordings and in plays and musicals all over Australia, New Zealand, Asia and on London's West End. Working with dance tutors, Leisi Edmonds and Lauren Miller this course will guide you through a graduated series of routines in the various dance styles used in Broadway and West End musicals.

Participants will join either the Junior Triple Threats (High School age) or the Senior Triple Threats (those 18 years and older). This course will be two and a half hours per week over 25 weeks. Student will be required to audition for a position in this course. Audition details will be available from the front office in the coming weeks.

Register your interest now by phoning the Conservatorium or emailing your details to the administration staff.

INTRODUCING NEW TUTORS

Two new vocal tutors commenced working at the CCC in Term 4 2012; Yvette Masters who teaches on Wednesdays and Thursdays and Sacha Kilgour who teaches on Mondays. Both tutors are contemporary vocalists.

We are very happy to welcome Giuseppe Zangari to the team who will be taking on Kim Cannan's guitar students and the classical guitar ensemble.

Liisa Munnukka joined the Piano Department in 2013. Liisa was awarded a Bachelor of Music (Piano Performance Major) from the Sydney Conservatorium of Music (University of Sydney) in 1995. Liisa has over 15 years experience as a piano tutor and takes delight in seeing her students' progress. She also has extensive experience as a rehearsal pianist and accompanist, and is a member of the Accompanists' Guild of NSW.

Robert Thompson from Gunnedah joins our Schools Program teaching a band of over thirty students at Lisarow Public School.

Peter Garrity will be teaching Children's Music Program (CMP) students on violin and will also take the Saturday Strings group Mini's from Term 1.

Rosalie Bourne joined the Conservatorium as a flute tutor.

New CMP tutors include Joanne McMahon, Kerryn Cooper and Susan Elliott. Welcome to these new tutors who will now be offering classes in Woy Woy and Erina as well as taking on some of the classes previously run by Helen Ford.

Ashley Turner returns to the Conservatorium to teach bass guitar in 2013. Ashley has a Bachelor of Fine Arts (Mus) from the City College of New York and an Assoc. Dip. in Jazz studies from Sydney Conservatorium. He has been awarded Australia Council Of The Arts grants for study in New York and for the production of his own CD, "Beautiful Open Spaces". Ashley is one of Sydney's most in-demand jazz bassists and has worked with many of Australia's leading jazz artists including James Morrison, Vince Jones and Dale Barlow as well as backing mainstream artists such as Dave Hobson, Marina Pryor, Monica Trapaga and Renee Geyer.

... AND FAREWELLING OTHERS

Farewell to our longstanding tutors Kim Cannan, Sylvia Colegrove, Michelle Urquhart, Helen Ford and Rosemary Witcomb. Kim has ceased teaching in order to focus on her performance career. With a number of highly acclaimed CD's available (you can purchase them from the front office), Kim is sure to become even more successful. Sylvia is probably our longest serving tutor, having been instrumental in setting up the Conservatorium over thirty years ago. We wish her all the best for the future. Rosemary has also been with the Conservatorium for over ten years and has taught many of our successful piano students. Her students consistently won scholarships and awards and performed favorably in exams. Rosemary plans to retire and we also wish her good health and happiness. Michelle and Helen are moving on to other positions and we wish them both all the best in their endeavours.

BATTLE OF THE BANDS

Over fifteen bands from schools where the Conservatorium teaches performed at the Youth Arts Warehouse on Sunday November 18 as part of the annual Battle of the Bands. The audience of nearly 200 packed out the venue and thanks must go to all the students who behaved so well and performed to the best of their abilities. Winners were:

- Small Training Band - Erina Heights Public School
Large Training Band - Gosford Public School
Small Concert Band - Terrigal Public School
Large Concert Band - Erina Heights Public School

Congratulations to all the band members and their tutors.

SUMMER SCHOOLS

Over the summer holidays, the CCC ran a number of very successful Summer School programs. Yvette Masters put together a four-day vocal workshop that included everything from stage craft to costuming in addition to the usual vocal technique training. David Dallinger and Luke Gallen held a two-day Saxophone & Clarinet School with Vanessa Ropa coming on board for flute students. Suzanne Borrett (pictured above with students) put together a wonderful program for the Strings Department that included tutors Olena Zaporozhets, Karina Hollands, Trish McMeekin, and Peter Garrity. Thanks to all the students who attended the Summer School program and stay tuned for some early information on future Summer Schools.

LITTLE PROMS

On Saturday December 8 the Youth Orchestra performed in Wyong Shire Council's outstanding facility, The Entrance Art Gallery. With such beautiful weather, the orchestra moved outdoors onto the deck and performed to a gathering of young potential musicians. Jenny Hankin did face painting and awards were handed out for the best pirate costume in the audience and the best dressed member of the Orchestra. Milly Denson and Ayrton Gilbert (pictured) from the Orchestra were each given an iTunes card for their efforts.

PAUL GRABOWSKY ON THE EVENTS CALENDAR

Expressions of Interest are being sought from suitably qualified piano players to participate in a workshop by International Jazz Pianist Paul Grabowsky on Saturday August 3, 2013 from 11am to 1pm in the Robert Knox Hall.

Costs for the workshop will be determined once numbers are known. The workshop will be open to CCC students and non-students, and the organisers stipulate that participants must be of a relatively high pianistic standard and with a skills bias towards jazz, improvisatory and semi-improvisatory performance and/or composition for piano. The workshop will be followed by a concert from the highly acclaimed pianist at 8.00pm on the evening of Saturday August 3. Tickets will be available early February and we expect it will be a sell out.

CON TO PARTNER WITH YOUTH ARTS WAREHOUSE

We are very pleased to announce that in 2013 the Conservatorium will partner with Youth Arts Warehouse in Donnison Street. YAW will provide some very valuable rehearsal and performance space for the Conservatorium whilst we in exchange will assist them in the delivery of their music program. Welcome onboard YAW and we're excited about the space.

CCSO

As a result of Chris Bearman standing down as Orchestra Director, the CCSO has engaged six guest conductors to deliver the CCSO Concerts in 2013. These conductors include local musicians Phil Rees, Christopher Hunt and Patrick Brennan as well as nationally and internationally regarded conductors Barry Bignell, Marco van Pagee and Richard Gill. The CCC and the CCSO is extremely excited about working with Richard Gill (our Patron, pictured below) and this will certainly be a highlight for 2013. Richard will also deliver a keynote speech at the Music Education on the Central Coast Forum in October (more information to come).

NEW ENSEMBLES PROGRAM AND FEES STRUCTURE

After careful consideration and research we have decided to look at a new approach to our fee structure. We believe the new fees will enable more students to participate in a more comprehensive and inclusive musical education. It will also enable students a greater range of ensembles, courses and performance opportunities.

The new fee structure for 2013 is based on a similar model currently being used at the Wollongong Conservatorium. On instigation of their new fee structure, in 2010, the Wollongong Conservatorium found many more students participated in their entire program and hence gained comprehensive music education. The overriding community sentiment to the new fee structure was that it was greatly welcomed and alleviated financial burden on participating families, as well as creating opportunities that were once financially unattainable. I believe a similar model will work for our community and this new fee structure, together with added programming, will produce better educational outcomes for all involved at the CCC.

NEW FEE STRUCTURE

All Musicianship Group Classes will be $160.00 per term.

NOTE: All students participating in Musicianship Group Classes (ie. Grades 1 to 7) may participate in any ensembles at no charge (additional courses not included). The offer does not include Composition, HSC Class or one to one theory lessons. All Ensembles for students not attending one to one lessons or musicianship classes will be $112 per term.

First Ensemble = $80.00/term

(students attending one to one lessons)

Second & Subsequent Ensemble = $45.00 each/term

(students attending one to one lessons)

MUSICIANSHIP

Our current theory classes will be expanded and diversified in 2013 to allow students to participate in lessons more relevant to their individual needs. This new Musicianship Course will incorporate AMEB course requirements as well as additional subject areas including sight singing, extension aural skills and functional harmony and analysis. These classes will start at the beginning of the year with each course culminating at the year's end. All students at the CCC should be enrolled in these courses.

CC CHILDREN'S CHOIR

The Children's Choir is making a triumphant return to the Central Coast Conservatorium from the start of the 2013 school term.

One of the keys to success of the choral program is that it is a 5-tiered program that caters to ability and age groups, facilitating not just enhanced musical development and the teaching of an age appropriate repertoire, but also better social outcomes. The five tiers of the choral program, which follows the highly regarded Kodaly method, are:

- Preparatory Choir (5-6 yrs old, or 7 yrs if never done any music) & Intermediate/Training Choir (6-8 yrs old)
Rehearsing 4.15pm to 5pm
- Main Choir (School Yrs 3-6, must be 8 years old to join)
Rehearsing 5.00pm to 6.15pm
- Katandra Voices (High School Yr 7 up to 21 yrs)
Rehearsing 6.30pm to 7.30pm
- Contemporary Vocal Ensemble (High School Yr 7 up to 21yrs); Rehearsing 7.30-8.30pm (must also be in Katandra Choir)

Central Coast early childhood music, piano and singing teacher, Joanne McMahon has been appointed as the Choral Director. As Assistant Director of the independently run Central Coast Children's Choir since 2004, Joanne is delighted to be bringing her current group of about 50 young choral students to the Conservatorium's Robert Knox Hall.

The children and young adults who are currently in the choir range in ages from 5 to 22 and come from all corners of the Central Coast. Coming together once a week to rehearse, they perform regularly at community events and also compete in a range of eisteddfods at regional, state and national level.

Costs for choir are as per the Ensemble rates. However, students enrolled in CMP who join Preparatory Choir receive a discount of 50% on their Choir fees. Any student enrolled in Musicianship group classes may join the Choir(s) at no additional cost.
