CENTRAL COAST CONSERVATORIUM

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION FORM FOR ABORIGINAL

OR TORRES STRAIT ISLANDER STUDENTS

BACKGROUND: The Central Coast Conservatorium through donation from Dr Romaine Rutnam and The Perpetual Foundation, is able to offer a scholarship to an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander student throughout the academic year 2017.

The scholarship is in line with the Mission Statement of the Conservatorium "To enable all, of any age or background, to acquire the skills involved in Music Performance and an informed appreciation of music to benefit them in their careers or lifestyle".

Rationale: The scholarship will be awarded to give the student the underpinning knowledge and skills to help them maximise their potential in music performance.

CRITERIA

- Applicants must be of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander descent and be 12 to 17 years of age, in full time education, with a postal address within the Central Coast Region.
- Applicants should be able to demonstrate current skills in instrumental and/or vocal performance; however previous formal training is not a prerequisite for this scholarship.
- The student applicant will be chosen following an interview/audition at an appointed time at the Central Coast Conservatorium, Cnr Mann St & Georgiana Terrace, Gosford. 2251.
- Students must be accompanied by a parent or significant person, when attending the interview/audition.
- Applicants must commit to their chosen programme of study for the 4 terms of the academic year 2017. Changes to the programme may only be made in consultation with the Director.

The following Tuition is currently available at the Conservatorium:

Voice – Classical and Jazz/Contemporary
Piano
Violin, Viola, Cello, Double Bass
Flute, Clarinet, Oboe, Bassoon
Guitar (Acoustic/Electric/Bass)
Timpani, Drums, all percussion instruments
Jazz studies, Ensembles programs
Creative Music Studies

- Please attach a letter of recommendation from a person aware of your musical interest and ability, e.g. School teacher, community leader etc.
