

CENTRAL COAST OPERA CHILDREN'S CHOIR

CALLING CHILDREN 9-14 YEARS !

The Central Coast Opera returns this season with its 2018 production of La Bohème.

We are looking for children 9-14 years to cast in our children's chorus.

This is an opportunity to participate in a comprehensive children's theatre class.

This class will explore and discover the skills of singing, choreographed movement and acting.

The children will be learning performance technique, staging and more from our wonderful, experienced and generous team in a fabulous learning opportunity to develop a children's choir that we can all be proud of.

If your child has ever wanted to perform but not felt confident enough to do so then this is their chance to try in a safe, fun, supportive environment.

The La Bohème children's choir class will be every Thursday afternoon at the Central Coast Conservatorium, 45 Mann St Gosford. 4.30-6.30pm

Classes start on Thursday 3rd May 2018 continuing until the production in August, 2018. Detailed information by request.

Auditions:
Week 1, Term 2. 2018.

Places are limited so please email
